

REPORT ON INDUSTRIAL VISIT (KVK –HIREHALLI)

6/02/2024

DETAILS OF INDUSTRIAL VISIT

Working in Agriculture not like a modern profession . Horticulture is a blend of agriculture, plant science, precision technology, food production .It is rapidly developing in an engineering discipline. With the growth of the World's population, effective and modern plant cultivation and food production is more important than even.

Grafting is one of the interesting processes in vegetative propagation. It serves as a technique to repair injured trees, to produce dwarf trees and shrubs and to strengthen plant's defence towards diseases. This array of application makes it essential to learn about the same.

OBJECTIVES

- To practically understand various instrumentation.
- To have an insight of various exotic and horticulturally important plants in KVK.
- To develop skill in varied grafting techniques.
- Seed processing unit ,nursery , Banana , Mango special ,Bio fertilizers ,Amla squash.
- Soil, Water ,plant tissue testing lab .

G. A. Ramesh

SIGNATURE OF HOD